

5th Grade

The designated summer reading book for students entering fifth grade is:

- No Talking by Andrew Clements

After reading the assigned novel, each student will complete the book report listed below. This assignment will be turned in the first week of school and will be your child's first reading grade of the year. Please make sure to follow the attached scoring rubric while completing this assignment. The content included in this novel will be used in class as a source of discussion during our reading lessons.

Mobile: The student will create a mobile to hang in the hallway. The following information needs to be on the mobile: title, author, illustrator, your name, the main character(s), and the beginning, middle, and end of the story. In addition, you need to share your opinion of the book and recommend who should read this book. One side of the paper hanging from the mobile needs to be written information, and the other side should contain a colorful illustration. Write in pen, marker, or type the information. Draw the illustrations neatly and in color.

Directions for the Mobile Book Report:

1. Use a wire coat hanger for the top of your mobile.
2. Use string or fishing line to attach the panels of your mobile.
3. Each of the panels should be on 4x6 index cards. The cards will have writing on one side and an illustration on the other side. Be sure all the writing is facing you as you hang each panel in your mobile.
4. Panel one is the top. One side has your name, the title, the author, and the illustrator as well as your opinion of the book. The other side is an illustration about your book.
5. Panels two and three are the setting (where the action takes place) in your story. Place the time/year on panel two and the place on panel three. Be sure to illustrate the back of both panels.
6. Panels four, five and six are the main characters. Write their names on one side and draw them on the other side. You may add more characters if you need to, just be sure they are indeed main characters.
7. Panels seven, eight, and nine are plot points. For each character, you need a panel that contains an event from the story that happened to the character in the beginning, middle, and end of the story.
8. Each panel must have a colorful drawing on one side; the words on the other side should be typed, or written in pen or marker. Be sure to use correct spelling, grammar, and punctuation.

Name _____

Mobile Book Report

Points Earned	Points Possible	Description
	5 points	Your name in the first panel.
	15 points	The title, author and illustrator as well as your opinion about the book are on the first panel with a drawing about the book on the back.
	15 points	Panels 2 and 3 have the setting (time & place) of the story. There is a corresponding illustration on the back of each panel.
	15 points	Panels 4, 5 & 6 (more if needed) have the name and a drawing of each main character.
	15 points	Panels 7, 8, & 9 have plot details (in sentence form) from the beginning, middle, or end of the story pertaining to each corresponding main character and an illustration on the back.
	10 points	All illustrations are neat and colorful.
	15 points	All words are neat and in pen, marker, or typed with correct spelling, grammar, and punctuation.
	10 points	This report is turned in on time with a copy of this rubric.
		Total points earned out of 100 points.

Comments and Grade: